Praise for Jean-François Parot :

'The Châtelet Apprentice is a terrific debut... a novel that brilliantly evokes the casual brutality of life in eighteenth-century France' Sunday Times

'Reads like a cross between a Maigret mystery and Les Liaisons Dangereuses' Mail on Sunday

An engaging murder mystery that picks away at the delicate power balance between king, police and state.' Financial Times

Sales Points:

- 5th in series of seven historical crime novels
- Series has sold 500,000 copies in French
- Series now showing on French TV

The Book:

These are difficult times for Nicolas Le Floch: Louis XV is dead and Nicolas's boss Sartine has been promoted to Minister of State for the Navy.

Le Noir, Sartine's successor as Lieutenant General of Police, distrusts Le Floch. Monsieur de Saint-Florentin, the King's new minister, entrusts Commissioner Le Floch with the investigation into the murder of a chambermaid whose throat was cut in unusual circumstances at Saint-Florentin's home.

His inquiry takes place both in Paris and Versailles, where he secures his position alongside the King and must confront the mysteries of the Trianon and the horrors of Bicetre. This fifth exciting adventure for Nicolas Le Floch has it all: serial crimes and a bizarre murder weapon, as well as debauchery, espionage, and the follies of a young court where ancient rivalries and grudges still linger.

The Author:

Jean-François Parot is a diplomat and historian. The Nicholas Le Floch mysteries have been published to much acclaim in France.
