

Wolf Hunt

Armand Cabasson

The Book

In 1809, the forces of Napoleon's Grande Armée are in Austria. For young Lieutenant Lukas Relmyer, it is hard to return to the place where he and fellow orphan Franz, were kidnapped four years previously. Franz was brutally murdered and Lukas has vowed to avenge his death. When the body of another orphan is found on the battlefield, Captain Quentin Margot and Lukas join forces to track down the wolf that is prowling once more in the forests of Aspern...

Sales Points

- Second in the highly acclaimed series of thrillers featuring dashing Captain Quentin Margot
- Set in the Napoleonic wars – a hugely popular subject with a committed readership
- Series has sold over 100,000 copies in French
- Highly promotable author will visit UK on publication
- Winner of the Napoleonic Foundation fiction prize
- 'Combines the suspense of a thriller with the compelling narrative of a war epic' Le Parisien

Publicity and Promotion

Press: Review coverage in national dailies and weeklies: New Statesman, Independent, Economist, Spectator, Mail on Sunday, Literary Review, Sunday Telegraph and Times

Websites: Reviews on Tangles Web, Shots, Mystery Ink.com, Monsters & Critics, Napoleon Bonaparte internet guide, Eurocrime & Dovegreyreader

The Author

Armand Cabasson is a prize-winning author and psychiatrist who lives in the north of France. He is a member of the French Napoleonic Society and has used his extensive research to create a vivid portrait of the Napoleonic campaigns.

Bibliographic Details

Price: £7.99
ISBN: 978-1-906040-08-6
Publication Date: May 2008

Extent: tbc
Format: B Format 198*128
Category: Historical Crime
French Publisher: 10-18 (Univers Poche)

UK SALES:
COMPASS
Tel: 020 8994 6477

DISTRIBUTION:
CENTRAL BOOKS
Tel: 0845 458 9911